Three Saigoku Shrines 西国三社参り

It is a time-honored practice and considered one of the more preeminent religious practices in Western Japan, to visit the Three Saigoku Shrines in a single trip. The shrines include the pair of Hinokumajingu and Kunikakasujingu (located on the same grounds), Kamayamajinja and Itakisojinja.

日南神社・國屋神社と龍山神社、そして伊太祁曽神社の三社を詣る「西国三社参り」は西日本領南と言われ、古くから多くの人々が参りに訪れます。

Kishi St. 貴志駅

This is the only train station in the world to have a bark roof, a traditional building technique in Japan that has been passed down over the ages. At the Tama Café that shares the building, you can enjoy gelato and juices made from locally sourced ingredients.
日本古来から伝わる伝統工法である檜皮葺きを施した世界唯一の駅舎。駅併設のたまかふでは、地元特産品を使用したジェラートやジュースが味わえます。
