

A topographic map of Japan, colored in shades of orange and brown to represent elevation. The map shows the main islands of Honshu, Shikoku, and Kyushu. The word "JAPAN" is written in large, bold, white capital letters across the center of the main island. In the lower central part of the island, two locations are marked with small yellow squares: "KAWASAKI" and "TOKYO". The surrounding ocean is depicted in various shades of blue, with darker tones indicating depth. The map is oriented with North at the top.
