

To Gallows Hill
where, in the summer
of 1692, 19 people
were hanged for witchcraft.
(No witches
were burned
in Salem!)

"Salem"
"Ah me, how many an autumn day
We watched with pulsating breath
Some gliding ship, from India or Cathay, Laden with spices from the East, the boy-
William Winthrop, 1635

In 1635, 178
vessels New Salem signaled Salem ships were first to open trade with St. Petersburg, Zanzibar, Bombay, Calcutta, Madagascar, and Australia

"Salem"
"How oft half-fearfully Around those gabled houses quaint and old Whose legends, grim and terrible,
Of witch and ghost that lived in them to dwell Around the twilight fire were told"
