

A map of the Philippines with a blue dot in the northern Luzon region. A dotted line connects this dot to a larger, circular inset map. The inset map shows the Aurora Province in green, with its surrounding regions in light gray. The province is elongated and tapers to the south. Several locations are labeled: Bulawan Falls and Parang Hills in the northern part, Baler in the middle (marked with a red dot), and Ditungmabo Mother Falls and View Point in the southern part.
