

The Villages of Lakewood Ranch South.

A combination of residential and commercial development on 5,500 acres of land south of University Parkway, will eventually contain 5,100 residential units, two village centers containing 300,000 square feet of commercial space, 60,000 square feet of public space and a new elementary school.

The Villages of Lakewood Ranch South plan

- Development area
- Village center
- Neighborhood center