

A stylized graphic featuring a white outline map of Colombia centered on a white background. The map is surrounded by decorative illustrations of coffee plants. On the left and right sides, there are branches with green leaves and clusters of bright red coffee cherries. Some cherries are shown individually, while others are in small groups. At the bottom, there are more green leaves, a white coffee flower, and a small cluster of cherries. The overall style is clean and modern, with a focus on the coffee theme.
