

A map showing a location labeled 'Longzhou'. The label is in black text with a small yellow dot to its left. The map features a light gray background with a network of lines. A prominent purple line runs diagonally from the top left towards the bottom right, passing near the label. A thin, irregular gray line follows a similar path but is slightly offset. On the right side, there are yellow lines forming a vertical and diagonal structure. The overall appearance is that of a stylized or simplified map.
