

Tubao (Brazil)

Users Rating 3/5: ★★☆☆☆

Type: beach

Reliability: consistent

Best Swell: S

Offshore Wind: NNW

Tubao in Bahia - Norte is an exposed beach break that has dependable surf. Winter is the best time of year for surfing here. The best wind direction is from the north northwest. Waves just as likely from local windswells as from distant groundswells and the best swell direction is from the south. The beach breaks offer lefts and rights. Good surf at all stages of the tide. Sometimes crowded.
