

A map of the state of Ceará, Brazil, showing its geographical location and major cities. The state is bordered by Piauí to the west, Rio Grande do Norte to the east, and Pernambuco to the south. The capital, Fortaleza, is marked with a red dot and labeled. Other major cities shown include Caucaia, Sobral, Juazeiro do Norte, and Aracati. The map also displays the state's coastline along the Atlantic Ocean and its internal road network.