

"Tuna Capital of the Philippines"

GENERAL SANTOS

Known today for being Manny "Pacman" Pacquiao's Hometown (coined "Boxing Home of the Philippines")

WHERE to GO

Mount Sabrina Resort is 25 minutes away from the city for a some R&R

Zipline

to a view of 5 of 7 big waterfalls in Lake Sebu, South Cotabato

Olaer Swimming Resort

is 10 minutes away from the city proper for basic and down to earth dug out pools fed by spring water cold enough to cool beer and sodas

White Sand Beaches

is just 1 hour and 45 minutes away. "Rosel" "White Haven" in Gumasa, Glan, Sarangani Province, all breathtaking.

Pacman's Mansion and Jinkee's Fashion World for the fan in all of us.

Tuna Port

to experience and immerse in Gensan's biggest export

Lemlunay Diving Resort

is just 45 minutes away with excellent roads to a fantastic dive spot.

WHERE to EAT

Gustaus Crabhouse
for garlicky crabs

TIONGSON ARCADE

Tiongson Arcade
for budget barbecue

Marietta's Barbecue
for their famous sauce

Nadie's Chicken House for some grilled native goodness

Arpochees
for the best crabs and native fried chicken

Big Ben Steak House
for native cheese ice cream, pinakbet rice and bulalo steak

Euro Kitchen
for tacos, steaks, and pork chops

Sarangani Highlands to chew some Tuna Jaw while enjoying the Sarangani Bay view.

Phela Grande Hotel and Restaurant for heavenly pansit laurian with clams

NIGHT LIFE

VBar
for extreme partying in this 5-storey party tower

Music City Family K-TV
for your karaoke craving

Pahayhay Restobar
for a chill night in tower for beer and food

HOW to get THERE

PAL flies between Manila and General Santos City once a day. PAL also flies between Cebu and General Santos City once a day on PAL Express flights.

Visit philippineairlines.com for information

CHOOSE PHILIPPINE AIRLINES
CHOOSE PHILIPPINES
www.choosephilippines.com

