

A detailed map of New York State and surrounding regions. The state of New York is labeled in large, bold, black letters across the top center. Major cities are marked with black dots and labeled, including Buffalo, Rochester, Syracuse, Albany, and New York City (partially visible). The Erie Canal is shown as a prominent green line running from Buffalo in the west to Albany in the east. Other notable features include Lake Ontario to the north and the Pennsylvania border to the south. The name 'Manlius' is written in a large, bold, black font, centered over the town of Manlius, which is marked with a red dot near Syracuse. The map also shows various smaller towns, roads, and the state boundaries with neighboring states like Ohio, Pennsylvania, and Vermont.