аам этиоя Иияăя Яо

uniég

ANCIENT HOME

Planu is the ancient home of the Estonians. One of the first human settlements of the country, by the Planu River the Pull settlement sitel, dates back to between 9000 and 8500 BC.

CITY RIGHTS

Settlements in what today is known as Pársu and next to the rivers here were first documented in 1154 by the Arab geographer al-Idris. The earliest written documents mentioning the town date from 1251. City rights were granted to

HANSEATIC CITY

In the early T4th century Rimu became a member of the Hanseatic League Its port played an important role in trade between Hanisatic hubs in the west and Russia in the east.

FORTRESS CITY

In the 17th century, during the Swedish era, Pamu became a town encircled by a modern system of fortifications designed to protect the property of the Kingdom of Sweden. After the Great Northern War (1700-1721) it served as a matrix forthers protecting the western borders of the Russian Empire.

RESORT

In 1835, Plenu was removed from the list of fortress towns, its fortification walk were demolished and the town sapidly developed beyond its borders, it soor fourished as a resort town, with the first bathing establishment opening its doors here in 1838.

SUMMER CAPITAL

Pamu was named the Summer Capital of Estonia in 1996. RESORT OFFERING UNPARALLELED EXPERIENCES

Planu's vision is to be a 21st century Baltic Sea resort offering visitors well-being and exciting any end of the second second

However, by the Hamamaa Tourish Foundation and Planu Dity Government.
Translation by Luisa Translation Agency Ltd.
Photos by Index Alja cover photol, Elen Juurma, Toomas Olev, Spa Estonia, Spa Tervis, Scandic Rannahotel
Design by Anal Disan
2012

ะ บการัจ

LODIA

.....

Viljandi 171 km Tarhu 185 km Ria 180 km