

A map showing a region with orange and light blue lines. The orange lines form a network, possibly representing roads or rivers, with a main line running vertically and branching out. A light blue line runs diagonally from the bottom left towards the center. A red dot is located on the main orange line, and the word 'Karakocan' is written in black text above it.

Karakocan

Karakocan